

BENEFITS OF TOASTMASTERS

Toastmasters produces results. Around the world more than three million men and women of all ages and occupations have benefited from the learn-by-doing training. Thousands corporations, community groups, universities, associations, and government agencies now use Toastmasters training because it is cost effective and it's fun

Each meeting you will:

- Build self-confidence; both personal and professional.
- Learn to plan and run effective, efficient meetings.
- Foster initiative and “pro-active” thinking within the organization.
- Improve communication to be clear and concise.
- Promote leadership qualities within the business and community.
- Develop and polish networking, sales and marketing skills.
- Enhance the ability to listen and evaluate objectively.
- Accomplishments create and sustain a winning attitude.

A company's success also depends on communication. Employees face an endless exchange of ideas, messages, and information as they deal with one another and with customers day after day. How well they communicate can determine whether a company quickly grows into an industry leader or joins thousands of other businesses mired in mediocrity. Toastmasters provides the tools that enable employees to become effective communicators and leaders, all at a very low cost. Toastmasters training helps employees:

Company Benefits

- give better sales presentations
- hone their management skills
- work better with fellow employees
- effectively develop and present ideas
- offer constructive criticism
- accept criticism more objectively

Community Benefits

Toastmasters has helped many members in their community service activities. Using the speaking and leadership skills developed in Toastmasters, people have become more active in business, churches, and service and charity organizations. Toastmasters members are able to organize activities, conduct meetings, and speak in public as their organization's representative. Some even become active in local, state or national government.
